A. S. Harmon, who conducted a shoe store in Reynoldsville two years and a half, has quit business here and yesterday moved to Tarentum, where he and a brother-in-law will conduct a large store. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon made a number of friends in Reynoldsville who were sorry to see them move away.

The following out of town people attended the Adam-Brown wedding last Wednesday: Mrs. Ella Myer, of Old Forge, Pa., Harry Myer, of Pittsburg, Mrs. A. W. Adam, Miss Margaret Adam, G. R. Adam and wife, of Brockwayville, Miss Nellie E. Sutter, of New Bethlehem, Mrs. Robert Logan, of DuBois, Prof. J. R. Wilson, of Corsica, E. H. Bevier, of Ridgway.

No arrangements have been made for a Fourth of July celebration in Reynoldsville next week, but a few people will stay in town that day and the small boy and firecrackers will remind the stay-at-homes that it is the national holiday. We feel safe in promising that there will be a monster Fourth of July celebration in Reynoldsville in 1907.

Rev. J. A. Parsons, S. S. Robinson, H. Alex. Stoke, W. B. Stauffer, Wm. Burge, Jr., William Copping and wife and Miss Eva Dempsey attended the funeral service for Dr. C. C. Rumberger in the M. E. church at Big Run Wednesday afternoon, and Rev. Parsons and ye editor accompanied the relatives and friends with body to Worthington, Armstrong county, Thursday morning where interment was made.

A couple of fair maidens attended the "shirt waist" dance in Reynolds Park last Friday night and did not get home until 2.00 a. m., and as one of them was to go to her home in Brookville on 8.08 a. m. train they decided not to go to bed so she would not miss the train. They ran from postoffice to railroad to catch the train and would have missed it had it not been there was an extra of baggage to load that morning.

 Revs. James and Alexander Waite, twin sons of Mrs. Robert Waite, of this place, who have been missionaries in China seven years, now home on a visit, certainly look as if the climate of China agreed with them. James arrived here May 16 and Alexander arrived June 15. James preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and Alexander will preach in the same church next Sunday morning. He will speak on their work in China.

Died at County Hospital.
 Arthur Clark McClarren, son of Mrs. Anna McClarren, died in the county hospital Monday night. Priester Bros., undertakers, brought the body to this place yesterday. Arthur was born April 30, 1884, and was 22 years old last April. He had been in the county home almost four years. Funeral service will be held at home of deceased's grandmother, Mrs. Tom Reynolds, Jr., in Paradise, at 10.00 a. m. to-morrow, and interment will be made in Sykesville cemetery.

Elks Played Ball Yesterday.
 The B. P. O. Elks base ball clubs of Reynoldsville and Johnsonburg played a game at this place yesterday afternoon and the home team was too hospitable to defeat the visitors on the home grounds and allowed them to run in 12 scores and Reynoldsville modestly took five scores. J. B. Butler and Reynolds Gibson were the home club's batter and Winkle and Shott were battery for visitors. Harry Keener's work on first base and Will H. Lucas' field work were features of the game.

Family Reunion and Picnic.
 On Friday, July 6, the sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith, and their children, will hold a family reunion at the Smith home on Railroad street. On account of the fact that the house would be too small to accommodate the large circle of relatives and friends that might want to attend the reunion, it has been decided to hold a picnic in The Mansion Inn Park on Saturday, July 7, to which the friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend. The family reunion will be held July 6 and the picnic will be held the following day, July 7, free to all.

Close Call.
 Dr. L. L. Means, one of our dentists, had a bullet pass uncomfortably near his head a few days ago while cleaning a 22-calibre target rifle, which he did not know was loaded. Doctor had put the gun away unloaded, but some person had loaded it unbeknown to him. He was holding the gun under his arm, with butt of gun back of him, when his little three-year-old son, Alton, stepped behind him, pulled the trigger and gun went off. The bullet caught enough of Doctor's left hand to make it bleed freely and whizzed past his head and lodged in ceiling. It is hardly necessary to add that Doctor was frightened.

Trip to Europe.
 Miss Isabel Arnold will leave here at noon to-morrow to visit a few days with her brother in Philadelphia before starting on her trip to attend the World's Christian Endeavor Convention in Geneva, Switzerland, and a tour through Europe. Saturday, July 7, she will sail from Boston with a party of tourists on the White Star steamer, "Romantic." The tourists will visit the Azores, Gibraltar, Naples, Rome, Florence, Venice and arrive at Geneva July 28. Wednesday, August 1, the convention at Geneva will adjourn and the tourists will resume their trip to Germany, Belgium, Paris and London, visiting old castles, inspecting cathedrals, &c., arriving in Boston August 18th.

Business Change.
 Harry L. McEntire, one of our town boys, a graduate of Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, of Philadelphia, and a registered pharmacist, has bought and taken charge of the Reynolds drug store. The transfer was made Monday. Walter B. Reynolds, a registered pharmacist, will remain with the new proprietor for a time at least. The store will be known hereafter as McEntire's Pharmacy. Harry McEntire is an enterprising and energetic young man, well known to the people of Reynoldsville and vicinity, having spent most of his life in town, accepting his college days. He is a genial and accommodating young man.

Dr. S. Reynolds, the retiring proprietor, has been in the drug business in Reynoldsville twenty-seven years and it is like leaving home for him to step down and out of the drug business. Dr. Reynolds expects to open an office and follow his profession as a physician.

IMPROVEMENTS IN PARK.
 Organizing Stock Company to Build a Theatre in Connection with Pavilion.
 John W. Dawson, superintendent of the silk mill, who has been very much interested in providing athletic sports for the young men of town, being one of the prime movers in organizing the Enterprise Athletic Association, and spent money and devoted time in making the association a success, has leased the Reynolds Park for several years, is now making an effort to get up a stock company for the purpose of building an addition to the pavilion for a theatre and athletic sports, basketball, ball, dances, &c. It is the intention to get $3,000 in stock at $10.00 per share. When $2,000 of the stock is subscribed, only a few shares lacking that amount now—a meeting will be held to organize the company. It is the expectation now to hold a meeting at the pavilion on Friday evening of this week.

B. & S. STRIKE ENDED.
 Pres. Mitchell Expects all Coal Trouble to be Settled Within a Week.

The coal strike at the mines of the Buffalo & Susquehanna Company has been settled and the miners have resumed work. The details of the agreement will not be given out for publication, but it is understood that the basis of the settlement was the 1903 scale.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, is quoted as saying that he expects all the coal troubles to be settled within a week.

Brought Home Five Prizes.
 Over one hundred members of Mazomania Tribe No. 341 and a large number of members of Pocahontas Degree of Reynoldsville attended the second annual reunion of the Improved Order of Red Men held at Punxsutawney last Wednesday and brought home five of the eight prizes offered by the reunion association. Mazomania Tribe got the $75.00 banner for largest number of members in line, and $25.00 cash prize for best band in contest, which was the Keystone band. The Degree of Pocahontas won the $5.00 prize for largest percent of members in line, and District Deputy Great Sachem Grant Rhoads and son, of Reynoldsville, won the $5.00 prize best appearing chief and papoose in parade.

Minnesota Tribe No. 293, of Emerickville, won the $75.00 parade flag for largest percentage of members in line.

Ex-Burgess Given Surprise Party.
 Thursday of last week was L. M. Simmons' birthday anniversary and the ladies of the Utopia, of which Mrs. Simmons is a member, decided to honor the Ex-Burgess with a birthday burlesque surprise party, and when their husbands were informed of the proposed party and the whyfore of it, they thought it would be a good joke and were willing to participate. It was one of the most complete and most enjoyable hour and a half surprise parties ever given in Reynoldsville. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons attended Dr. MacLeod's lecture in Presbyterian church and did not get home until 10.25. About the time they entered their home the door of their neighbor's home, James A. McCreight, swung open and twenty-five people filed out and marched across the street to Mr. Simmons' home and completely surprised Ex-Burgess and his wife, and then the mirth began. The two leather chairs and set of china dishes presented were not of much intrinsic value, but they answered the purpose intended. Dr. J. A. Parsons, Rev. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville, and Dr. MacLeod, of Washington, D. C., helped the fun along by making addresses suitable for the occasion. Ice cream, cake and coffee, provided by the guests, were served. At midnight good night was said and the guests departed for their respective homes.

"An American Abroad."
 Dr. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Washington, D. C., and a classmate of Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, delivered a lecture in the Presbyterian church at this place last Thursday evening entitled, "An American Abroad." It was an able lecture, containing much useful and valuable information. The lecturer related his experiences abroad in an attractive, humorous and interesting manner. He held the close attention of his audience for almost two hours.

Had a Hearing Saturday.
 A special from Indiana, Pa., to daily papers under date of June 24, says: "Constable William North and Assistant Supt. William Reed were held for trial yesterday for the murder of Peter Pianaleta, an Italian, who was shot and killed at Ernest on June 8. The members of the state constabulary, sheriff's deputies and Gen. Supt. John Reed, of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg coal interests, who were arrested on the same charge, were discharged. Pianaleta was shot during a parade of striking miners."

Damage Allowed.
 Ed. C. Burns claimed $600.00 damages to his livery barn by the paving of Fourth street a couple of years ago, and finally the court appointed viewers on the case, and we understand the viewers will make their report at the next term of court, allowing Mr. Burns $200.00 damage.

Last Warning Notice.
 This is the last warning notice I will give to persons who have not paid their taxes for 1905, and all such taxes remaining unpaid after July 1st, 1906, I will positively proceed to collect according to law. I don't want to be compelled to collect by law, but the borough and county demands the money and I must collect the taxes.

Notice of Desertion.
 John Wray has left his bed and board and gone without provocation and I hereby warn all persons that I will not pay any bills he contracts nor be responsible for his debts.

Notice.
 West Reynoldsville school board will receive bids until July 2, at 8.00 o'clock a. m. for furnishing good mine run coal for the coming term. Also bids for janitor; also for painting interior of school building.

By Order of the Board,
 O. H. JOHNSTON, Sec.

Wanted.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE JOINED IN HOLY WEDLOCK.

Thomas F. Adam and Miss Inez Elliott Brown Married Wednesday Last in the Presence of Many Invited Guests.

One of the most fashionable weddings that has taken place in Reynoldsville for years, was that of Miss Inez Elliott Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fremont M. Brown, to Mr. Thomas Findlater Adam, which was solemnized at the elegant home of the bride's parents on Grant street at 10.30 a. m. Wednesday, June 20, 1906. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. The ceremony was performed in the library in the presence of a number of invited guests. Miss Erma Robinson played the wedding march and during the ceremony played Narcissus softly. The bride was given away by her father. She wore a gown of white messaline satin, tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white bride roses and maiden hair fern. The groom wore black frock coat, gray pants and gray gloves. Florence Elliott, cousin of bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in white silk. Carried a leghorn hat filled with pink roses. The four brides girls, Margaret Adam, niece of groom, Dorothy Elliott, cousin of bride, Gertrude Stoke and Gertrude Hammond, were dressed in white. The house was beautifully decorated. The decoration in library was palms, ferns, pale pink hydrangeas and pink roses; in the parlor ferns and white maples; the stair railing was entwined with sparagus ferns and pink roses; in the upper hall were palms and ferns; the mantles in all rooms were banked with maiden hair fern. After the reception an elegant wedding breakfast was served. Covers were laid for six at the bride's table, which was adorned with maiden hair fern and pink roses. The other guests were seated at smaller tables. Blaydon's orchestra played during the reception and wedding breakfast. There were 120 guests present and pretty gowns were very much in evidence. It was a brilliant wedding. The presents were beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam went to New York City and from there up the Hudson to Albany on a ten day or two weeks' wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends after July 10th. Mr. Adam, manager of the Adam Shoe Store, is one of our enterprising and promising young men, and his bride is one of our talented and fine young ladies. The bride and groom are both highly esteemed.

The groom had found pleasure on several occasions in playing tricks on newly married friends as they started on a wedding trip, and this was an opportune time to liquidate the account. Mr. Adam had anticipated some move by his friends and attempted to thwart their plans by engaging two carriages, one to be driven up in front of residence and the other on a back street intending to skip out the back way while the friends waited for him to go out to carriage in front of residence, but his friends were not so easily out-generalized. An old carriage and team of work horses with heavy harness on, which had been hired by the young men, was also driven up in front of residence, and when Mr. Adam and bride saw that their escape was shut off, they wisely submitted and gracefully marched out and got into the old carriage and were driven to P. R. R. station with four or five young men hanging on the carriage ringing sleighbells. Hand bills were distributed along the street and at the railroad with a large display heading, "Just Married" and following announcement: "This is a quiet tip; keep your eye on them. Dollars to doughnuts they're going to New York to spend some money and their honey-moon. Oh joy! Shoe-string Tommy, is a very fine man; he sells Walk-Over shoes to whoever he can. Inez, his bride, is a lady fair, a fact to which all her friends will swear. A great deal depends on getting the right start in life. 23 for you, now skidoo."

A large number of the guests went to the railroad station and showered the bride and groom with rice, and some of the young men, uninvited, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Adam to Falls Creek, distributing the hand bills on the train and at Falls Creek, and gave a commercial man a hand full of bills to distribute on the train they took at Falls Creek.
